Talk a bit about your son's role in your family. What can you count on him to be?

List one or two of your son's outstanding personality traits/characteristics; briefly describe past incidents/events/situations, which illustrate these strengths.

In what areas has your son shown the most personal maturation/growth over the last three years?

What Cistercian and out of school extra-curricular activities mean the most to your son? (In addition to sports/clubs, consider jobs, church activities, volunteer work, etc.) Why are these so important to him?

For the following, check any that apply:

Please list the names and ages of all siblings. If they attend or have attended college, please list their colleges and years attended:

What academic major(s) might your son choose?

What career might he eventually pursue?

Would you prefer him to attend a Catholic or faith based college or university?

Are there any special criteria you anticipate your son considering when choosing colleges to research? (e.g. specific styled housing, fraternity life, core curriculum, proximity to family, etc.)

Do you already have a list of colleges/universities you are interested in for your son? Are there any colleges you would not like him to consider? If so, please share.

Are there any unusual or personal circumstances that have colored your son's educational or personal experiences over the years? Please elaborate or explain.

Please feel free to attach an additional letter or document if you'd like to share about your son or the context out of which he comes.
